

DENIAL OF ACCESS REQUEST FOR HEARING

The administrator of a nursing home facility may refuse access to the facility to any person if:

- The presence of that person in the facility would be injurious to the health and safety of a resident
- The presence of that person would threaten the security of the property of a resident or the facility
- The person seeks access to the facility for commercial purposes.

Any person refused access to a nursing home facility may, within ten days, request a hearing under Section 3-703. 210 ILCS 45/2-110(d).
