

Minority Health Disparities

Population in Illinois, 2015

Social and economic conditions contribute to gaps in health care and health outcomes between minorities and whites

Health disparities can arise from cultural barriers, language barriers, geographic isolation, and low income

Minorities experience a disproportionate burden of disease, disability, and death

Blacks ages 18-49 years, are TWO times as likely to die from heart disease than whites

Hispanics have a 23% higher obesity rate than whites

Blacks have the HIGHEST death rate for all cancers combined compared with whites

American Indian/Alaska Native adults are 2.4 times as likely as white adults to be diagnosed with diabetes

Opioid Overdose Death Rates
Percent Increase from 2015-2016

Median Household Income in the U.S., 2015

Median Household Income in IL, 2015

