CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION
EVERYONE HAS A ROLE TO PLAY!

www.preventchildabuseillinois.org
Dear Friends,

Thank you for participating in the 2016 Child Abuse Prevention Month campaign in Illinois.

We hope that the information and materials in this packet will be helpful for you and your community.

April is National Child Abuse Prevention Month and by participating you are joining thousands of other communities, organizations and individuals across our nation who are putting children first and are engaging in activities to raise awareness and to promote the prevention of child abuse.

Child abuse is one of the greatest tragedies of our times. It doesn’t have to be. We can prevent it by building communities that are committed to families and to the support and services they need to raise strong, healthy, and successful children. And that begins with awareness.

Prevent Child Abuse Illinois is proud to be part of this national effort. We are working with partner organizations and communities throughout Illinois to raise awareness, to build effective services, and to strengthen families. And we encourage every community in Illinois to be part of this effort.

As part of our ongoing campaign we are pleased to promote the national pinwheel symbol of prevention alongside the traditional blue ribbon. The pinwheel was chosen for its positive association with children and with happy images of childhood. It represents our hope that every child will be raised in a healthy, safe, and nurturing environment.

Again, thank you for participating in this year’s campaign. We hope this resource packet is helpful and we encourage you to go to our website for additional information and links to other resources. Please feel free to contact us at anytime.

Sincerely,

Roy A. Harley,
Executive Director

CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION: EVERYONE HAS A ROLE TO PLAY!

Prevention Month Packet Instructions

History
Child Abuse Prevention Month has been observed each April since its first presidential proclamation in 1983. Since that time millions of Americans have participated in this exciting public awareness campaign. Individuals, organizations and communities across the country plant pinwheels, tie ribbons, organize trainings, host fundraisers, hold family events, and support a multitude of other activities celebrating childhood and raising awareness that all children deserve to grow up in happy, healthy environments.

Why this packet?
This packet has been designed to give you information about child abuse prevention, ideas for observing Child Abuse Prevention Month, and resources to use with families, programs and communities. Use the ideas and templates presented here to raise local awareness about child maltreatment in Illinois and to foster community projects that make our state a healthier place for children and youth.

Organization
This packet is organized into 8 sections. The sections are not divided by blank pages or section dividers to save on paper and printing costs. The Table of Contents highlights each section and lists what is located within that section. For example, in the Prevention Basics sections you will find topics that include Warning Signs of Abuse and What to do in a Public Place. In the section titled Community Prevention Campaigns you will find information about Pinwheels and Blue Ribbons and in the Media section you will find a sample media release to help your organization or group get the information out about your prevention activities.

Facts About Child Abuse

What is Child Abuse and Neglect?

Physical abuse – an injury to a child that is not an accident, may include: hitting, punching, beating, burning, biting, kicking, cutting, shaking, or any action that physically harms a child.

Emotional abuse – maltreatment of a child that may involve criticizing, insulting, yelling, swearing, manipulating, rejecting or withholding love.

Sexual abuse – any sexual activity with a child, including exhibitionism, photographs or videos, pornography, prostitution, fondling, or rape.

Neglect – failure to provide for a child’s basic physical, emotional, medical or educational needs.

Who Abuses Children?

Most often the abuser is someone the child knows, such as a parent, relative, neighbor or friend of the family.

Where Does Child Abuse Happen?

Wherever children are, where they live, sleep, learn or play.

How Often Does Child Abuse Occur?

Each year, close to 3 million reports of suspected abuse are filed in the United States. Many more cases never get reported. One victim of child abuse is one too many!

Warning Signs of Abuse

Children who are abused may show physical and behavioral signs. You may be a child's only lifeline to safety. Please pay attention to the treatment of children around you. Child abuse is everyone's business. If you suspect a child is being abused or neglected in Illinois, call 1-800-25-ABUSE (1-800-252-2873).

Children who have been abused or neglected may be:
- Nervous around adults or afraid of certain adults
- Reluctant to go home
- Very passive and withdrawn—or aggressive and disruptive
- Often tired or complaining of nightmares, or not sleeping well
- Fearful and anxious
- Showing sudden changes in behavior or school performance

Possible signs of physical abuse:
- Unexplained burns, bruises, black eyes or other injuries
- Apparent fear of a parent or caretaker
- Faded bruises or healing injuries
- Injuries that do not match the explanation

Possible signs of sexual abuse:
- Difficulty walking or sitting, or other indications of injury to the genital area
- Sexual knowledge or behavior beyond what is normal for the child's age
- Running away from home

Possible signs of neglect:
- Frequently missing school
- Begging for or stealing money or food
- Lacking needed medical or dental care
- Being frequently dirty
- Using alcohol or other drugs
- Saying there is no one at home to take care of him or her

Possible signs of emotional abuse:
- Acting overly mature or immature for the child's age
- Extreme changes in behavior
- Delays in physical or emotional development
- Attempted suicide
- Lack of emotional attachment to the parent

Many of these signs may also be present in children exposed to violence in their homes and communities, like domestic violence and gang violence. These signs don't prove that a child is being abused. But they could be a signal that the child and his or her family may need help.

Also know the signs of an abusive adult. Consider the possibility of abuse if a parent or caretaker:
- Seems unconcerned about the child's welfare
- Denies problems at school or at home
- Blames the child for causing problems
- Sees the child as worthless or as a burden
- Avoids discussing the child's injuries or gives conflicting explanations for them
- Abuses alcohol and/or other drugs
- Seems isolated from other parents as well as school and community activities
- Uses harsh physical discipline or asks other caretakers to use it
- Depends on the child for emotional support
- Seems indifferent to the child
- Seems secretive or tries to isolate the child from other children and adults
- Frequently blames, belittles, or insults the child

These signs don’t prove that an adult is abusive. But they could be a signal that the adult may need help.
How To Report Child Abuse and Neglect!

- Call the DCFS hotline:
  1-800-25ABUSE (1-800-252-2873)
  (Outside of Illinois call 217-524-2606)

- Have the following information about the child or children, if possible:
  ✓ Name
  ✓ Address
  ✓ Information about siblings
  ✓ Date of birth
  ✓ Phone number
  ✓ Parent/guardian’s name

- Identify if you are a mandated reporter.
- Tell the hotline right away if you think it is an emergency.
- Tell the hotline why you think the child or children are abused or neglected. Report the facts about what you have seen and/or heard.
- Give the hotline as much information about the abuse and the person responsible for the abuse as possible.
- You do not have to have proof of the abuse. If you suspect a child is being hurt, call the hotline.
- Sometimes the hotline will not be able to take the report. It is ok to ask the hotline worker for other resources or ideas to help the family.
- You can make a report to the hotline without giving your name.
- To learn more about the hotline or making a report visit the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services website at:

What To Do If You See Child Abuse in a Public Place

Start a conversation with the adult to direct attention away from the child.

For Example:
“She seems to be trying your patience.”
“My child sometimes gets upset like that, too.”
“Children can really wear you out sometimes. Is there anything I can do to help?”

Divert the child’s attention (if misbehaving) by talking to the child.

For Example:
“That’s a great baseball cap. Are you a Cardinals fan?”
“I like your t-shirt. Did you get that on vacation?”

Look for an opportunity to praise the parent or child.

For Example:
“He has the most beautiful eyes.”
“That’s a very pretty shirt on your little girl. Where did you get it?”

If the child is in danger, offer assistance.

For Example:
If the child is left unattended in a grocery cart, stand near the child until the parent returns.
If the child is in immediate danger, call the police!

Avoid negative remarks or looks.

Negative reactions are likely to increase the parent’s stress or anger, and could make matters worse for the child.

What It Takes To Be A Nurturing Parent

Begin today by being a positive parent or caretaker and help other family members, friends, and neighbors be positive parents too.

- Make children a priority.
- Show and tell your children that you love them everyday.
- Let your children know you are happy to be with them.
- Give children the sense of security, belonging and support.
- Catch your children being good and give them lots of praise.

Really listen to your children.
- Give children your undivided attention when they are talking.
- Be patient and remember that children move at a different pace when they tell a story about their day.

Spend time with your children.
- Make some special time for each of your children.
- Play with them, talk with them, and read with them.
- Keep your promises.
- Let your children help with household projects.
- Tell your children about your own childhood.
- Go to the zoo, museums and ball games as a family.
- Make and fly a kite together.
- Play outside, play a board game, do an art project or other creative activity.

Set a good example.
- Use good manners.
- Set clear, consistent limits.
- Consider how your decisions will affect your children.
- Open a savings account for college education.
- Resolve conflicts quickly.
- Take your children to your place of worship.
- Allow yourself a time-out when needed. Taking care of yourself is as important as taking care of your family.

Reach out to other family members, friends and neighbors
* Talk to family, friends and neighbors about parenting.
* Join a parent support group.
* Get involved in something where you can socialize with other parents.
* Seek help if you need it. If you feel out of control or like a bad parent, get help.

Isolation is often a contributing factor to child abuse. Lack of a support system and the feelings of being stressed and alone can intensify problems. Protecting children is everyone’s responsibility.

How You Can Prevent Child Abuse!

The 6 Protective Factors

The Center for the Study of Social Policy spent 2 years investigating protective factors and how to keep kids safe. They reviewed research in the field of child abuse and neglect, prevention, and family resiliency. They also interviewed hundreds of experts, practitioners and parents. Below are the 6 Protective Factors and how you can help build healthy children and strong families. For more information visit http://friendsnrc.org.

Parental Resilience
- Help parents and caregivers see their strengths and find solutions to their problems by building on those strengths.
- Focus on flexibility and help parents learn how to bounce back from difficult situations.

Social Connections
- Give families a safe place to gather and make friends.
- Host or sponsor child and family events, such as health fairs, reading nights, and block parties. Encourage your place of worship, school, daycare and work to do the same.

Knowledge of Parenting & Child Development
- Share information with parents and all caregivers on child development and appropriate discipline.
- Start a lending library of books and toys that will help parents understand ages and stages their child is going through.

Concrete supports in times of need
- Link families to needed community services in a positive and respectful manner.
- Offering support to a parent who is under stress through babysitting, making a meal, or maybe just listening.

Social and Emotional Competence of Children
- Teach children to recognize and express their feelings.
- Help children learn how to share, cooperate and take turns.

Parent-Child Relationship
- Provide opportunities for parents and children to spend fun time together.
- Support home visiting programs in your area such as Healthy Families, Early Head Start, and Parents as Teachers which provide families with early bonding experiences.

Prevent Child Abuse Illinois has developed several tools to help parents and caregivers cope with the everyday challenges and joys of raising strong, healthy children. These resources and many others can be found on our website www.preventchildabuseillinois.org.

PINWHEELS are fast becoming the national symbol for child abuse and neglect prevention. The pinwheel represents our hope that every child will be raised in a healthy, safe and nurturing environment. It is also a call to action, encouraging people everywhere to recognize that children are our future and that we all have a role to play in keeping them safe. All children deserve great childhoods. Your agency or group may want to consider using Pinwheels (either alone or with Blue Ribbons) as a symbol of this positive message.

Join us by bringing Pinwheels for Prevention to your community!

Pinwheels can be used in lots of ways to create a strong visual, to spark interest by the media, and to get people talking about prevention. Here are some ways to use pinwheels in your community.

- Plant a Pinwheel Garden. Plant as many as you can or plant pinwheels to recognize:
  - All the children born in your community during the past year
  - All the children served by your organization, program or school
  - Your own children, grandchildren or all the children in your neighborhood

(Please do not allow pinwheels to be equated with reports of child abuse or child deaths.)

- Consider planting Pinwheels at childcare centers, schools, nursing homes, hospitals, courthouses, health departments, libraries, and other highly visible locations.
- Decorate your home, office, classroom or business with Pinwheels.
- Make your own Pinwheels as a group or class project using the template found in this packet. (Page 24) Pinwheel color sheets are also available. (Page 23)
- Carry Pinwheels in parades, give them as prizes or sell them as a fundraiser.
- Wear Pinwheel jewelry, and tell everyone about why you’re involved with Pinwheels for Prevention, the things your are doing in your own family and community, how you are making a difference in the life of a child, and how they can help!
- Put Pinwheels in vases or flower pots in public places such as libraries, court houses, hospitals, and banks. A small sign can be placed beside the Pinwheels to tell passersby that we all have a role to play in child abuse prevention.

Pinwheels can be ordered using page 28 of this packet or from our website www.preventchildabuseillinois.org

Check out our great selection of Pinwheel jewelry and other Pinwheel merchandise on page 29 of this packet!

The Blue Ribbon Campaign began in Virginia in 1989 when a grandmother, Bonnie W. Finney, tied a blue ribbon to the antenna of her van “to make people wonder.” The story she told to inquisitive community members was a tragic story about the abuse of her grandchildren, which ultimately led to the brutal death of her grandson.

The story of Bonnie Finney demonstrates the effect that just one person can have on raising public awareness of child abuse and in promoting its prevention.

Since Bonnie Finney first tied that blue ribbon to her van antenna in 1989, millions of people across the country have participated in blue ribbon campaigns.

Each year more people join the effort by wearing blue ribbons, encouraging others to wear and display them, and getting involved in community activities to “make people wonder” about the significance of the blue ribbon and how to prevent abuse.

Prevent Child Abuse Illinois invites you to get involved this year, and make this the best Child Abuse Prevention Month Illinois has ever seen. Everyone has a role to play!

(To learn more about Bonnie Finney’s story visit our website.)

SOCIAL MEDIA, APRIL, AND CHILD ABUSE PREVENTION

Computers, IPads, and smart phones are everywhere and at times it seems like social media sites have taken over our lives. But apps like Facebook and Twitter are a great way to share messages and reach large groups of people. Below are some suggested messages and ideas for raising awareness and spreading the word during April that we all have a role to play in preventing child abuse.

TWITTER

- Small actions can make big differences in the lives of families and children. April is Child Abuse Prevention Month #Greatchildhoods #Pinwheel #pcaill #CAPM
- All children deserve #Greatchildhoods. Tell us about the ordinary actions you take to make a child’s life extraordinary #Pinwheel
- Celebrate Child Abuse Prevention Month by planting a #Pinwheel to honor those who helped you or your children have #Greatchildhoods
- Simple, everyday actions are what make #Greatchildhoods a reality.
- All children deserve #Greatchildhoods because our children are our future. RT if you agree!

FACEBOOK

- Have you heard about the “James gang”? No not that one, the one made-up of fifth grade boys from Mankato, MN. These boys saw a classmate named James who has a learning disability being teased and they did something so ordinary, it’s actually quite extraordinary – they asked him to sit at their table during lunch. We think that actions like these are the rule, or could be, and not the exception. That in fact, lots of extraordinary ordinary things are happening in towns like Mankato, and yours, everyday. What simple, everyday extraordinary ordinary thing are you doing to make sure the children you know are having great childhoods? Share with us here.
- All children deserve great childhoods because our children are our future. How are we going to achieve this? We’re going to do it together, one simple, every day action at a time, where we support both our families and the families we know, but all of the families in our neighborhoods and communities. We can knock on a neighbor’s door. We can help with babysitting. We can form a book club. We can get involved in our neighborhood school or child-serving agency. If you’re not sure what you can do, ask us, and if you didn’t realize you were already playing a role, great job, now please let us know about it.

Child welfare advocates from public and private agencies are joining together for a press conference and awards ceremony on April 1, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. at the Illinois State Building in Springfield in observance of National Child Abuse Prevention Month. Speakers at the press conference include representatives from the Governor’s office, the Illinois Department of Children and Family Services, and Prevent Child Abuse Illinois. Entertainment will be provided by Children’s House Daycare. After the press conference, guests are invited to a brief reception. The lawn surrounding the building will be decorated with Blue Ribbons and Pinwheels. Both Blue Ribbons and Pinwheels are nationally recognized symbols of child abuse prevention. The Blue Ribbon serves as a reminder of the hidden bruises and scars of abused children. The Pinwheel symbolizes hope and the promise that every child deserves to be raised in a healthy, safe and nurturing environment.

Short Article. Since 1983, when April was designated as Child Abuse Prevention Month, communities across the country have used this month-long observance to increase awareness of child abuse and its prevention. It is a time when individuals, schools, businesses, hospitals, religious organizations, and social service agencies join together to educate everyone about child abuse and neglect prevention.

Recognizing that everyone can participate in helping to strengthen families can have an enormous impact on our children’s health and success. Preventing child abuse means setting the stage for healthy, stable families who have the tools they need for nurturing their children. Help your community understand prevention. Support programs and services that help families and children. Be a good neighbor. Offer to baby-sit. Donate used children’s clothing, furniture and toys for another family. Be kind and supportive to new parents. Respond to families in crisis and link families to needed services and opportunities.

Children are our future and their early years significantly impact their future successes. As citizens we are responsible for ensuring that all parents and families have access to the support, information and services they need to succeed.

Re: April Child Abuse Prevention Month

Date: April 1, 2016
Contact: (your info here)

Dear Editor:

Illinois participates in a national tradition of observing April as Child Abuse Prevention Awareness Month. April is devoted to celebrating everything we can do to transform our communities into places that care about – and actively support families and children. By making sure all parents in our communities have access to quality childcare, affordable health services, parenting education resources, substance abuse treatment, and mental health programs, we make progress toward what the month stands for, preventing child abuse! Child Abuse Prevention Month is about connecting all of these things so that solutions to child abuse receive the attention that we need and that people expect. It is not enough to care about the problems of child abuse and neglect and to address the consequences. We also have to pay attention to the kinds of efforts that will prevent it from happening in the first place. It’s a shared responsibility. We all play a part in caring for our nation’s children and supporting families.

Insert your program or agency information here, for example:

Prevent Child Abuse Illinois, a statewide organization established in 1990, focuses on the prevention of child abuse and neglect across the state through public awareness campaigns, community education, volunteer and professional training, program technical assistance, and community prevention services. To learn more about child abuse prevention, and what you can do to get involved visit www.preventchildabuseillinois.org.

Sincerely,

The Effects of Domestic Violence on Children
Living in a home with domestic violence can have a significant impact on a child's emotional and physical well-being. More than half of families where a woman is abused, the children are abused as well. This training will provide an overview of the cycle of violence, warning signs that may be exhibited by children, and ways you can help.

The Effects of Methamphetamine on Children
There is a strong connection between methamphetamine use and abuse by parents and child maltreatment. This training will provide an overview of methamphetamine production and use, as well as the warning signs, risk factors and dangers to children.

Shaken Baby Syndrome
Shaken Baby Syndrome (SBS) occurs when an infant or young child is violently shaken. This training will help participants understand the signs, effects and causes of SBS and the impact on families and society. (Also available in a Train-The-Trainer format.)

The 40 Developmental Assets
Created by the Search Institute, the 40 Developmental Assets are common sense, positive experiences that help young people make good choices to avoid high risk behavior. This training will help adults learn how they can build assets and influence the children and youth within their programs and communities.

For information on these and other trainings visit our website www.preventchildabuseillinois.org or contact the PCA Illinois office near you.
