Call to Order

The subcommittee meeting began at 3:31 pm with a welcome from Dara Gray Basley, Subcommittee Chair. Roll was taken and the agenda and Minutes from the June 23, 2020 meeting were approved.

Public Comments

Next, Dara asked if there were any public comments. She noted that fifteen (15) minutes were allotted for the public comment period and each person would have a maximum of 3 minutes to speak. There were no comments from the public.

Discussion Items

P&BP Subcommittee Program Form

Group members that submitted forms presented their programs/research to the group. Programs and projects discussed were:

1. Reduction of Peripartum Racial/Ethnic Disparities (Organization: The Council on Patient Safety in Women’s Health Care Alliance for Innovation on Maternal Health (AIM)) – Presented by Patti King
2. California Birth Equity Collaborative Pilot (Organization: California Material Quality Care Collaborative) – Presented by Patti King
3. Birth Equity Initiative (Organization: ILPQC) – Presented by Patti King
4. Mother’s Voices Driving Birth Equity (Organization: National Birth Equity Collaborative (NBEC)) – Presented by Patti King
5. Family Management (Organization: DHS) - Presented by Chris Emmons
6. Healthworks (Organization: DHS) – Presented by Chris Emmons
7. The Luke Project 52 Clinic - Presented by Pastor Angelique
8. Disparities Research for Change: A Roadmap to Reduce Racial and Ethnic Disparities in Health Care (Organization: RWJF) – Presented by Patti King

There was some discussion regard making recommendations regarding the continuity of care through postpartum. The group acknowledged that it will require an examination of coverage and engaging MCOs.

Additionally, the group said that focus should be on programs that have a return on investment and includes accountability and meaningful interactions.

Due to time, the group was not able to discuss all of the submitted program forms. It was determined that the remaining programs would be discussed during the next meeting on August 25th. Presenters will include Guadalupe Perez, Ashley Phillips, Dara Basely and Kenya McRae.
